NORMALS AND M. H. S. ARE LEADING THE SCHEDULE

A NORMAL GAME MONDAY

Central Wesleyans of Warrenton Will Oppose Bearcats—M. H. S. Takes On Benton at St. Joe Tonight

With the Normal Bearcats leading the conference teams in the race for the basket ball pennant, the game Monday night with Lemke's Central Wesleyan college bunch from Warrenton promises one of the best of the home court games. The Central defeated Drake University in a rattling good game last Friday and Coach Palfreyman's basket shooters are preparing for a close contest, which they hope, however, to win. The team will present a good lineup and with Scott sufficiently recovered from the accident to his eye received in the game with Poly at Kansas City last week, the bunch feels pretty well prepared. Workouts have continued and the men are in better shape, if anything, than at any time so far this season. Besides Scott, Earl Miller will be on the forward line, Charley Wells and Cleo Miller will do guard duty and Fred McMahon will play center.

W. J. Lemke, athletic director at Warrenton, will be accompanied Monday by the following players: Biz Zimmerman, Art Polster, Ray Polster, Alf Buschman, Casper Jacoby, Malcolm Sudbrock, P. Fricke and Walter Hermann.

M. H. S. at St. Joe Tonight.

The M. H. S. basket ball five also have a clean record so far this season and the game at St. Joseph tonight with the Benton High School team is being awaited with much interest. The Bentons are top-notchers, however, and the Maryville players will likely be called on to extend themselves to bring home the big end of the score. Benton won from Maryville last year and the M. H. S. players are going to do their best to "go over the top" in tonight's game.

The Benton players in tonight's game will include McClelland and Cummins, forwards; Hayes and Matherly, center; Sam Utz, Lawrence Utz and Robert Young, guards.

The Maryville players who will leave this evening are. Yehle, Robinson, Puckett, Egley, King, Kirby and Yowell. The Y. M. C. A. coach will referee the game.

TEACHERS ASKED TO AID

Gen. Crowder Says Index of Registrants Is Necessary and Wants School Teachers to Help

The local board received word this morning that Oliver Gray of this county had been discharged from Camp Pike, Ark., on account of physical disability and that a substitute be sent.

The board also received word that the war department has asked school teachers to assist in indexing and classifying the occupation of each man who sent in their questionnaire. The order from the provost marshal general is as follows:

"Every man of draft age is now returning to his local board a questionnaire. Upon these questionnaires all young men will be classified. An index of this classification is absolutely indispensable. We can not wait until the end of the classification for the first installment of that index, because the national needs for certain specially skilled men is now paramount and very urgent. The local board can not be called upon to make this index because they are now working to the limit of their capacity. There is only one class of citizens that can be organized immediately and called at once to this service, and that is school teachers.

The principals of tht high schools are to call together the teachers under their jurisdiction and select the teachers that can be utilized to do this work and to accomplish it efficiently and without delay.

Annual Banquet of the Haines Bunch Last Night Was In Nature of Patriotic Event

The annual banquet given by Harvey L. Haines to the employees of the Haines dry goods store took place last night in Mr. Haines' apartments on North Main street.

The January banquet is the most anticipated event in the yearly entertainment schedule of the "Haines Bunch." Last night was no exception to the rule and everything that hospitality could contrive to make a flawless evening of pleasure for the sixteen people attending was provided by their host.

Flowers and pennants, all in the "Haines Bunch" colors of red and white, were used in room decorations. The banquet was served at 7 o'clock under the direction of Caterer Reuillard. The guests were seated at one table on which was placed a runner of white and red ribbon, overlaid with ferns and red and white carnations with vases of flowers placed at intervals. Red and white blossoms marked the plates, and the menu cards were white booklets tied with red ribbons, with the Haines Bunch monogram and the individual guest's name in red on the cover and the menu and guest list on the insert printed in red. A six-course roast turkey menu was served.

During the dinner a musical program was given and at its conclusion two new employees, Miss Frank Goodson and Ray Hull, were initiated into the sacred rites of the Haines Bunch. When the crossing of the hot sands was safely made Mr. Haines presented the two candidates with a gold enamel "H.B." pins.

Draped over one chair was the service flag with two stars for the absent members, Elmer Allen and John Marion Worwag, both of whom are now in training camps.

In remembrance of these boys and that the "Bunch" might always do its bit in helping win the war, Mr. Haines gave each of his nine employees present a $5.00 war savings certificate as a souvenir of the evening. The visiting ladies present were given bunches of red and white carnations for favors.

Mr. Haines' guests were Miss Anna Stapler, Miss Katherine Vaughn, Miss Ella Null, Miss Elizabeth Heffern, Miss Clara Sherlock, Miss Stella McDowell, Miss Frank Goodson, Miss Gladys Ford, Ray Hull, the members of the "Haines Bunch," and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Beattie, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Keck, Miss Kate Schenck and L. G. Schumacher.

The case of Doss Huff, charged with setting fire to James F. Cook's grain elevator at Elmo on the night of September 11, 1917, is being heard in circuit court today and it is probable it will take the rest of the day before the case is submitted to the jury.

Bloodhound evidence was introduced this morning. E. C. Bohn of St. Joseph, who had charge of the bloodhounds used at Elmo the following morning and followed the trail to Huff's house, was on the stand. Bohn is now in the army and is stationed at Camp Funston. Dennis Hudgens of Elmo had charge of one of the dogs and also gave testimony in the case.

BONDS IS BEST WAY

SEC'Y STATE HIGHWAY BOARD TALKS ON GOOD ROADS

TO MEET TONIGHT AGAIN

Good Crowd Attends Meeting This Afternoon to Hear Road Problems Discussed — Moving Pictures

The largest crowd that has ever attended a good roads meeting heard A. C. McKibben, secretary of the state highway board, at the Empire theatre this afternoon explain the state road law and how counties and districts might take advantage of its provisions in obtaining better roads. That a county-wide bond issue was the best solution of the good roads problem is the opinion of Mr. McKibben, who said that by this method every section of the county would benefit, while under any other proposed plan individual districts would be the gainers only.

Secretary McKibben said that counties with township organization might vote a county-wide bond issue, he having had a ruling from the attorney general on the question. Mr. McKibben also said that township organization was a distinct disadvantage to a county as it made the overhead expense of carrying on the local government too great.

Following th caddress of Mr. McKibben many questions were asked, showing the great interest being taken in good roads by residents of the county, business men and others. Moving pictures were also shown of convicts at work on roads and of road construction.

Another meeting will be chld tonight at the circuit court room when Mr. McKibben will talk on good roads and the pictures will again be shown.

London Finds That Confirmation Is Lacking of Serious Revolts In Austrian Capital

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

London, Jan. 25.—Confirmation of the Petrograd report of the revolution at Vienna is still lacking today. The belief is generally accepted, however, both in and out of officail circles, that the report was greatly exaggerated. That serious unrest continues in Vienna and the chief industrial centers of Austria is known to be true, but there is no news bearing out the report that has been circulated from Petrograd that Vienna mobs tried to overthrow the government. The German government is taking strong measures to prevent the spread of agitations from Austria to Germany.

CESSATION TO FRANCE WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED, SAYS VON HERTLING

SEES NO DESIRE OF ENEMIES FOR PEACE

In War Aims Speech to Reichstag Committee He Declares That Tone of President Wilson's Speech Has Changed

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Berne, Jan. 25.—Count Von Hertling, the German imperial chancellor, in an address to the Reichstag main committee, replying to the war aims address recently made by Lloyd George, declared that the cessation to France of Allsace-Lorrain could not be considered by Germany. Concerning the situation in the east and at Brest Litovsk, Chancellor von Hertling said that in the opinion of the government the evacuation of Russian territory by the Austro-German armies is a question that concerns only Russia and the Central Empires.

The imperial chancellor made significant reference to the war aims address of President Wilson, declaring that the tone of his speech had changed since the president's reply to the peace note of the Pope, and that perhaps "the American president has already started in the right direction."

The chancellor took a different attitude toward the address of Lloyd George. He said that he "saw no earnest desire for peace on the part of Germany's enemies," and emphasized the opinoin that the British premier believed himself justly entitled to adjudge Germany guilty of all kinds of crimes while displaying no friendly spirit.

"Germany does not wish to acquire any territory in Belgium or Northern France by violence," the chancellor continued ,and speaking of the Brest Litovsk peace negotiations, he said that they had been resumed and the Russian delegation has returned there after having consulted the Bolsheviki

Forum-ettes

Billy Sunday says old Pontius Pilate was a "stand-pat, free lunch, pie-counter, pliable, lickspittle, tin-horn, peanut-grafting, ward-heeling, weasel-eyed, rat hole of a whiskey-soaked, God-forsaken politician." That don't leave much for Teddy to say about those in charge of the war.

The Pickering Pickups correspondent of the Hopkins Journal says: "Those Forumettes in the Maryville paper act sorter like cascarets on the liver, so keep 'em coming." It is a good thing the Democrat-Forum is an afternoon paper, because we'd hate to have 'em "work while you sleep."

"Lectured on Oriental Rugs," was a headline in the Kansas City Star yesterday. That's nothing. We've been bawled out on 'em.

A man might do it once in a while but it is probable that no woman ever mailed a post card for a friend without reading it.

A Maryville man says he lost a lot of patriotism and some blood the other evening when he sat down on his wife's knitting outfit.

The tombstone hasn't anything on the widow when it comes to telling her second husband what a fine man her first one was.

A man sick in bed at home never feels right unless he knows what became of his clothes.

The Democrat-Forum is patriotic, all right, but it is not such an extremist as to inflict on its readers all of the patriotic poems that are sent in for publication.

The prices of things may not suit you, but the chances are they would be higher if you were doing the selling instead of the buying.

Hertling said an agreement probably could be reached without any difficulty on the first four points laid down by Wilson. The chancellor said the first was open covenants and absence of "secret diplomacy;" second, freedom of seas; third, guarantees for reduction of national armament; fourth, removal of economical barriers. On the other hand, Hertling said realization of Wilson's colonial formals "would meet with some difficulties." He took a determined stand against "reconsideration of the status of Alsace-Lorraine and wound up talk by suggesting that Wilson and Lloyd George again reconsider and restate their terms.

He said Germany was willing to consider the formation of an international league to enforce peace after the end of the war. As to freedom of the seas, he said Germany would insist on England to relinquish armed points along the international trade routes. He mentioned Malta, Hong Kong and Gibralter in particular.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
